After Quick Notes are entered they show up on the Quick Check page ("Notes!") until they are turned into something else... a task, a calendar entry, or so on. They are a simple way to make a note of something without having to "think" about the organization. (Shown here for demonstration purposes, but will be able to be accessed from anywhere)

The "ti adora" dress by Alvina Valenta: <http://www.jlmcouture.com/Ti-adora>. Che Bella carries this dress and it is also available in Ivory.

Comment

Doris Ruthers: Love this dress, Mary! Let's go check it out next weekend.

The "share" option works the same way as the share option for whole boards (similar to YouTube). The "favorite" (star) option allows to mark Mary to mark her favorites. The "like" option (heart) allows those that Mary has shared her board and/or item with to like the item (similar to Facebook) and the red number signifies how many people have liked that item.
